Hire Vets First!

A job fair for veterans with a wide variety of work experience, men and women who are transitioning from active duty, and members of the National Guard and Reserves

Wednesday, February 22, 2006 ■ 11 a.m. - 4 p.m.
Times-Union Center for the Performing Arts ■ Jacksonville, Florida

Hiring military veterans is a great way of saying to those who have served, "Thank you for your service and sacrifice."

It is also very good business. Transitioning and veteran personnel have attributes that make them outstanding civilian employees, including leadership, initiative, self-discipline, and an excellent work ethic.

The overwhelming majority of active-duty personnel work in military employment categories that have easily recognized civilian counterparts-ranging from "Engineering, Science, and Technical" and "Machine Operator and Precision Work" to "Transportation and Material Handling" and "Executive, Administrative, and Managerial."

Individuals who have trained in the combat occupations make outstanding leaders in Corporate America.

To help Corporate America connect with this outstanding talent, RecruitMilitary will heavily promote the Hire Vets First! job fair to job seekers throughout the Southeast.

RecruitMilitary will issue e-mail invitations to a special portion of its database of registered job seekers who have a military background—all individuals who live in, or desire to live in, the Southeast. The estimated size of this population is 30,000.

RecruitMilitary will announce the job fair to transition counselors at all military bases in the Southeast and will mail printed flyers to be handed out to transitioning military and posted in the transition facilities.

RecruitMilitary will issue press releases announcing the job fair and will directly contact print and broadcast media throughout the Southeast.
